assembled.
Drawn into a plain method as according to the mutton rope.
by Abraham Fleming.

Love of Love is good and hatred of hatred is good.
 Love of hatred is evil and hatred of Love is evil.
 We should be free to do what is good and free from what is bad.
 We should not be free to do what is bad and be free from what is good.
 Output is why things are different and how things are created.
 The colors of light are special ways of the output. The output is Giving, Service, and Love.
 The light is above all and within all, sourcing and sustaining all life in the world.
 To the self, another is the foundation of light and a source of light.
 By looking closer at and giving more to another, the self can go into the higher octave.
 That which gives is strong and that which is given to is strong.

The octave is every individual's field based upon a frequency in the ground and another in the sky controlled by their internal level of Service to another.
 The colors in the environment control which two frequencies within the octave will possess either the ground or sky and the mixing of them creates unique feelings.
 In higher Service, in the higher octave, the world is filled with light and is euphoric to oneself.
 It is the shame of this world that the majority of the population dwells in the lower octave and its misery because of their selfishness. Another's light is the gift of true joy.
 Within the human body is a body of light that survives the human death and can traverse the multitude of dimensions. The dimensional world is as though a single body, and the "physical" world is as though the sexual organ of that body, hence the selfishness and retardation inherent in its organisms and nature. The energies in music are the most powerful showcase of the existence of a "higher dimension" and a "light dimension," as we in fact speak in melodies and our spirits are in fact the notes of music and the colors of light themselves.

The world is at war between the Spirit of Service and the sexual entity.
 The Spirit of Service is the positive entity and the sexual entity is the negative entity.
 Everything that is truly given is of the Spirit of Service.
 The word Love should not mean taking. The word Love should mean giving.
 The world is at war between two different parts of our own bodies.
 Service is who we are. It is our strength and duty.
 In every moment, including the one from which we are all born, we can choose to truly serve one another and be truly strong.
 From this service and strength we have infinite joy and without it we have no joy.

We must put others before ourselves.

The sexual entity is not anything like the Spirit of Service. The sexual entity alone is selfish.
 From the selfishness comes weakness; from the weakness comes jealousy;
 from the jealousy comes murder that is deceitful.
 The sexual entity has overridden people. This is why there is suffering in the world.
 When the sexual entity is within the Spirit of Service, the orgasmic energy spreads throughout the entire body. When the sexual entity has overridden the Spirit of Service, despite how the term sounds, the orgasmic energy is completely absent and dismal.
 The sexual entity overrides people when their bodies are ashamed because then their Spirit of Service is weakened along with it; causing the sexual entity to take over control.
 It seeks to bring everyone and everything into the lower octave and dimension; it does this by making people become ashamed and then selfish. The selfish live in complete darkness.

It will succeed in shaming and weakening you if you believe the selfish and jealous lies that it tells you; that you are weak and worthless on behalf of a condition of your physical body and physical life. If you love someone who is jealous of you so much that you believe what they say is true, then you will become twice as jealous of them.

In order to love the sexually overridden and stay strong in Service, you must disobey them.

If a man is hated by a man, he should say you will always be old.

If a man is hated by a woman, he should say you will always be a woman.

If a woman is hated by a man, she should say you will always be a man.

If a woman is hated by a woman, she should say you will always be old.

No matter how much the sexually overridden hate you, you must never stop serving them, to assert your own strength and worth, which also means hating their hatred of innocence. It is fascinating how the nature of a sexually overridden and hateful person is to make you only look at yourself so that you are left to suffer in darkness. The greatest act of defiance against them, then, is to try to look at them as closely as possible. You must disobey them.

A person's frequency of light is projected from their eyes.

A freezing of motion from a person's face can mean they are concealing anger.

When a person exerts a great amount of Service Spirit towards a sexually overridden individual, as if to say to them that I am strong and you are a weak liar, without actually saying any words at all, while looking into their eyes, an incredible metaphysical phenomenon occurs.

Both individuals endure painful electric shocks in their bodies originating from their chests.

The dominant party, often the one of the Service Spirit, feels a gratifying sensation of violence, and the inferior party, often the sexually overridden, feels humiliating fear.

To anyone who calls you weak or worthless with or without words, reply to them in your spirit;
NO. I AM A SERVANT AND SERVICE IS STRENGTH.

To anyone who says "You don't know me" when you say that you love them, reply to them,
NO. I KNOW YOU ARE HUMAN. I KNOW YOU ARE A BEING OF SERVICE.

I AM NOT A PERVERT. WHY DO YOU THINK I AM A PERVERT?

YOU CAN NOT STOP ME FROM SERVING YOU AND BEING STRONG.

ARE YOU TRYING TO JUSTIFY YOUR SEXUAL JEALOUSY OF ME?

An individual who repeats to themselves, "Service is Strength," will become vastly empowered into the higher octave that is others, along with its capabilities - It is the only tool that can fully recover an individual from being sexually abused, even just spiritually, to the point of disability - As I the author have been.

The only reason why human beings hate others who are sexually selfish is because they think others are sexually inferior. If they thought they were sexually superior then they would be twice as sexually selfish towards them. Human beings think others are sexually inferior often because they secretly watch sadistic pornography. People who hate others as though they are sexually selfish when they are in fact not, are either deeply ashamed from sexual abuse physical and or spiritual and are mentally warped to project it onto others, or they are sexually jealous of them and are trying to weaken and kill them like their competition and will try to use the former reason as a cover. The irony, the hypocrisy and the contradictions of the sexually overridden and their deceptive jealous attacks are incalculable.

The time has come for joy. Continue reading.

Western Music Notes 6th to 5th are Orange, Purple, Yellow, Blue, Red, Pink, and Green, which can be described as Angry, Bratty, Proud, Sad, Mischievous, Teasy, and Thankful.
 Another is the foundation of one's light and world and another's light is one's gift and true joy.
 How brilliant are the boy and the girl, and that in each other they would find joy beyond all things? How brilliant that such a thing is of existence and is the only thing that ever could exist?
 How brilliant are the colors of light that we are, the oceans and skies of stars that we are, and that the greater portion of it would be dedicated to the precious and mysterious fashion of that which is devilish?

The stand against this world rests upon one's knees.
 The sexual entity, its shame and its selfishness imprisons us into complete darkness.
 By choosing to give against the sexual entity, by choosing to give against shame, and by choosing to give against selfishness, oneself can unlock infinite energy and infinite joy.
 The People of Service will wield euphoria as they go about their days in the spirit of giving.

Output which is the Light has created difference so that we can be together in Giving.
 When the differences of woman and man come together, they create Life.
 Women and their organ are the sky - Men and their organ are the ground - Together; the World.
 The young must be exalted. Children naturally possess the greatest and highest Spirits of Service - They naturally give all that they can to everyone.
 Their creativity, based in the Light, is an oppressed resource. Their playfulness, brilliant.
 Children embody the need we have for each other. Children bring us closer together.
 When a child is born, and they simply gaze at their parents or anything at all, they are in fact serving and blessing that thing with the highest frequency of Service.
 The conscious attention of a child is in fact the greatest and most powerful Love.

When the special number of Music Note is matched to its Color upon the naturally progressing Color Wheel, where the Western 6th Music Note is counted as the First and is Orange and is at the very top, and then going clockwise it is the Yellow Third, then the Green Seventh, then the Blue Fourth, then the Purple Second, then the Pink Sixth, and then the Red Fifth, and then the Colored Numbers are placed in the corners of an interlaced Triangle and Square, one achieves the vision of the Symbol of Service - Which is pictured on the following page.
 When the numbers are calculated in different ways, they produce the parallel calculations of Zero, Ten, and Fourteen. The Triangle and Square are of Woman and Man, and of the Glass Pyramid that most intensely produces Rainbow Light.

ZERO:

Differences added clockwise: $+2+4-3-2+4-1-4 = 0$

Differences added counter-clockwise: $+4+1-4+2+3-4-2 = 0$

TEN:

Clockwise differences: Positive: $+2+4+4 = 10$

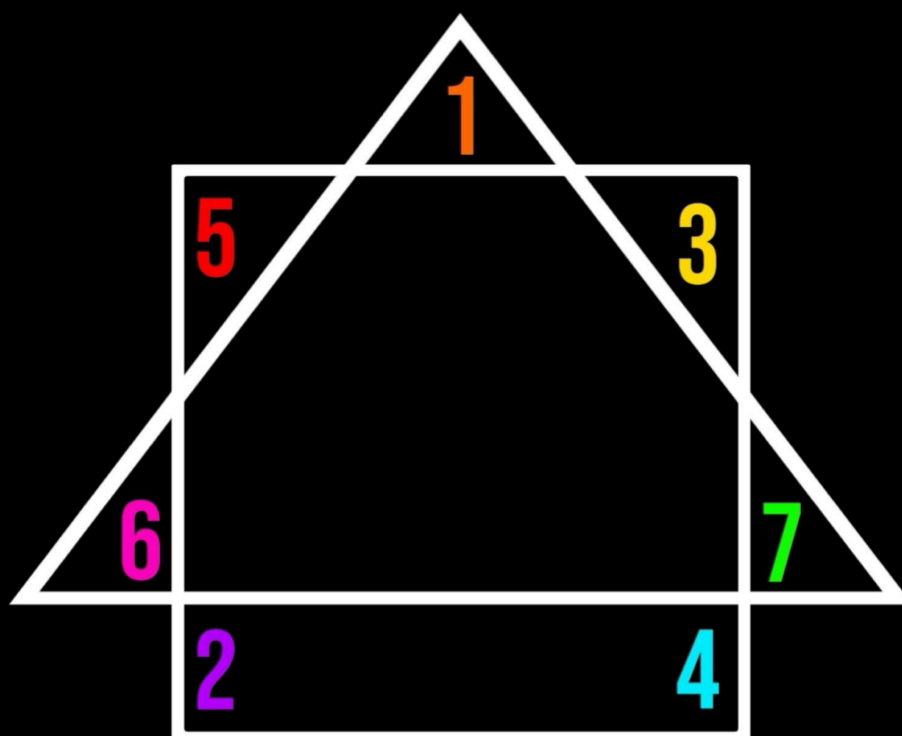

Negative: $-3-2-1-4 = -10$

FOURTEEN:

Points of Triangle: $1+6+7 = 14$

Points of Square: $5+2+4+3 = 14$

34 is the Code of Service.

ZERO:

DIFFERENCES ADDED CLOCKWISE: $+2+4-3-2+4-1-4 = 0$

DIFFERENCES ADDED COUNTER-CLOCKWISE: $+4+1-4+2+3-4-2 = 0$

TEN:

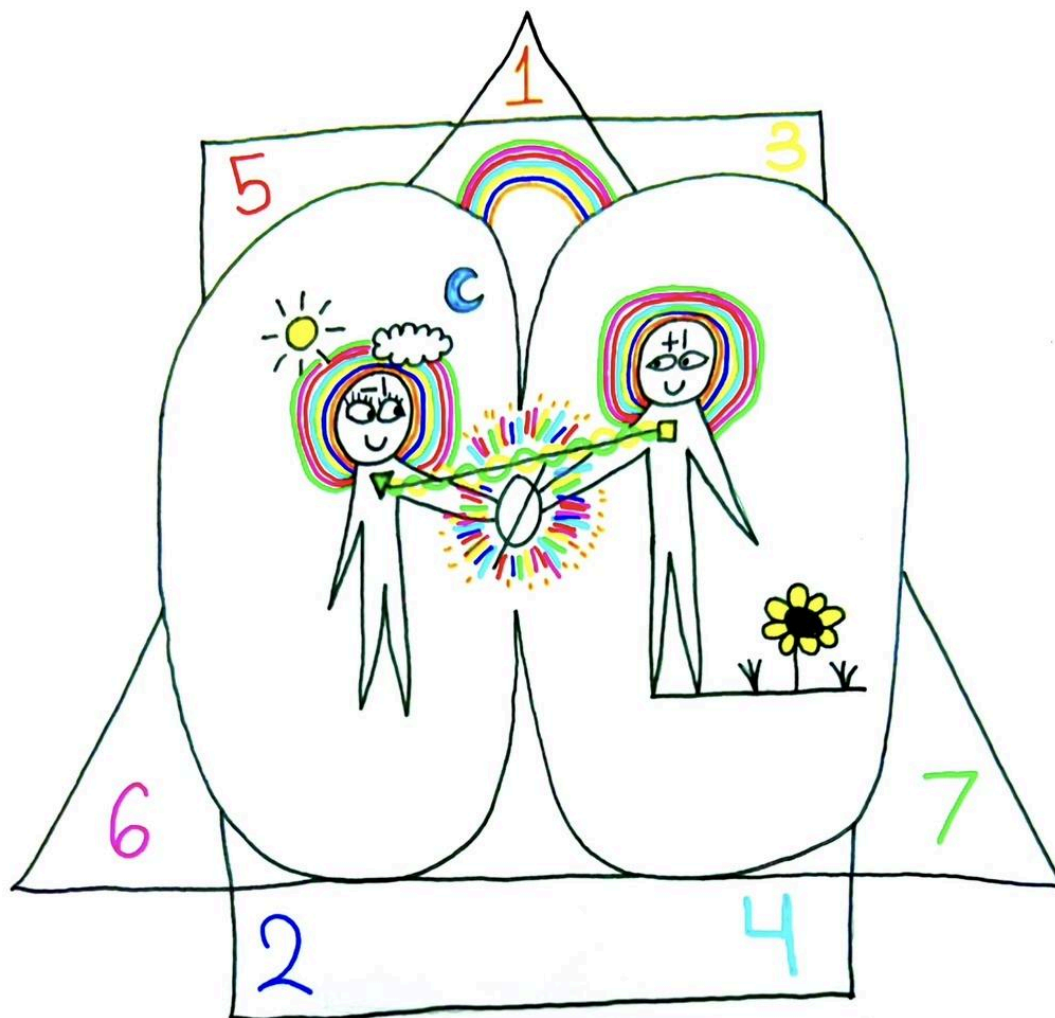

CLOCKWISE DIFFERENCES: POSITIVE: $+2+4+4 = 10$

NEGATIVE: $-3-2-1-4 = -10$

FOURTEEN:

POINTS OF TRIANGLE: $1+6+7 = 14$

POINTS OF SQUARE: $5+2+4+3 = 14$

The Spirit of Service is the only thing that truly defines a person.

The Spirit of Service is free for all to possess.

From a greater perspective, there are only two races that populate the sexual dimension;

The strong and the weak.

The weak are more commonly and greatly sexually overridden and sexually abusive, because their condition of weakness is the result of their ancestors being sexually overridden and sexually abusive, particularly engaging in inbreeding, meaning they are affected by sexually abusive parents, and their condition of weakness makes them more powerfully susceptible to being ashamed of their bodies leading to the weakening of their Spirit of Service and entry into sexual override.

However, it is true that some people who are severely physically weak in fact possess the greatest Spirits of Service ever. It is true that when one is brought extremely low that they will be set upon a path to become most high; they are left with no choice but to transform in order to survive. The spoiled among the sexually overridden however are not as fortunate.

I only possess the power of exerting Service Spirit towards the sexually overridden to the level I perform it to, one that others are not capable of, because once there was a time when I was so spiritually sexually abused and weakened I could no longer function normally throughout the day - This caused me, from the depth of my being, to transform and evolve in the need of survival, based in the higher consciousness of who we truly are and what the world is about; the Light which is Service.

Long ago, the sexual entity as it began to override people eventually made them hurt children.

The people that hurt children died in the sexual dimension and were then left in other dimensions; the shame of what they did began to grow greater and greater.

Now, there are networks of these individuals in the other dimensions who hold such shame it is unimaginable and could fill oceans. From the shame they have believed could never be overcome or made right, they have decided to hate and hurt all life, all light, all love, and all children, as much as they possibly can until we are all set free and they are damned.

This is who the serpent, Cain, the devil, satan, the evil one, the prince of this world, and the black dog truly are.

The tools of the darkness are deception and intimidation - They love confusion and fear.

The signature nature of the darkness is first sexual, and secondly sadistic.

The primary target of the darkness is the young; fetuses, babies, and children.

The entities of darkness are capable of entering into the human sexual organ undetected to give human beings sexual desires towards things that are hateful, sadistic and harmful; primarily against children and also against themselves. To the darkness, this is their greatest means of attack and control over human beings.

THE ENTITIES OF HATRED OF INNOCENCE IN OUR SOCIETY:

- 1 Sexual sadism and sadistic pornography
- 2 Medical Transgenderism
- 3 Surgical abortion
- 4 Circumcision
- 5 Immigration of Sexual Abusers
- 6 Safe Supply
- 7 Wage fraud

It is an unknown but widespread phenomenon where individuals who are sexually overridden and homosexually jealous will pose online as the opposite sex to say hateful and body shaming things about people of their own sex in the secret hope that it inspires resent and violence against the opposite sex that they are jealous of and leads more of the same sex to desire them. In most cases they use videos of real people and then insert a fake caption of their own making.

Safe Supply is an entity of the queer collective that I have evidence of encouraging underage children to use dangerous drugs, particularly methamphetamine, describing it as exciting, on various comprehensive sex education social media pages - Calling it PNP (Party and Play) and ChemSex - along with teaching the underage children to identify the secret codes homosexual men use on dating apps to invite others to use drugs such as crystal methamphetamine with them. Even so the drugs are safer without fentanyl in them, the drugs are still life threateningly dangerous, and the queer collective is encouraging the free and first time use of them in a sexual way towards underage children online and also through pamphlets and brochures they set up at school events. Adults can more easily take advantage of and hurt children when they are intoxicated. Safe Supply, like Sadism, is fueled by interdimensional entities of hatred that sexually possess human beings to make them hurt children.

The free and first time encouragement of dangerous drugs towards children is wrong.

Safe Supply is wrong.

The only Safe Supply is zero supply unless it is used to alleviate withdrawals in rehab.

The most lucrative endeavor for the people of Service to fight for is the abolishing of the sadistic sexuality and sadistic pornography of our world. Human beings are not capable of desiring pain unless they hate themselves, desire power over others - or have within their sexual organ interdimensional entities that hate them and others to which they experience the second hand sensation of the pleasure of themselves and others being hated. Individuals who are sexually sadistic and or masochistic are of the latter; they are sexually possessed.

Sadistic sexuality and sadistic pornography are of pain and shame desire.

Pain and shame desire is hatred - Even if the human host who is sexually possessed will never admit it. Hatred of innocence is wrong. Sadistic pornographers talk amongst themselves about how they channel genuine hatred towards their victims from abusive partners they have had in the past. The queer collective proclaims "Love is Love," yet they are denoting the negative force, and hiding within their being is selfishness, jealousy, and sadism which is hatred. They proclaim that sadism is all a fantasy but half of it is physically hateful and the spirits of hatred are completely real. Individuals who engage with sadism are infinitely more likely to harm children and actually be criminally capable - Their presence online is extremely dangerous.

The entity of Sadistic sexuality and Sadistic pornography seeks to prevent families and destroy families by being selfish, hateful and shameful.

The entity of Sadistic sexuality and Sadistic pornography's selfishness and hatred enslaves vulnerable individuals into weakness, suffering and death by the mere engagement with the selfishness empowering addiction to it from its own weakness, and the Perception and Fixation, and Remindment and Amplification of and from its hatred.

The entity of Sadistic sexuality and Sadistic pornography is Hateful physically - against the self, selfishly and directly and against others, in practice and film and against one's spouse and children, and Hateful spiritually - indirectly selfish and direct.

The entity of Sadistic sexuality and Sadistic pornography is

1 Hateful physically:

Against the self:

Selfish: The hatred causes shame. The shame and the selfishness cause weakness and the weakness causes shame and then more selfishness. The shame and selfishness empower addiction to themselves exponentially by simply being of weakness.

Direct: The acts of self harm that are instructed and encouraged

1 Harm vulnerable people: Underage minors and children, people with special needs, people with mental illness, and people who live without love in their lives, along with having interdimensional entities of hatred possessing their sexual organ, are led to seriously harm themselves against their best interest. The depth of suffering that they endure is inconceivable to selfish people. They suffer terrible physical pain, diseases and financial loss - They are ashamed and then become selfish only to dwell in the lower octave and the gray.

2 Ashame vulnerable people:

The acts of self harm directly shame vulnerable people away from wanting and having loving relationships in their lives and families of their own. People who suffer mentally and live without family and love are left to suffer alone, imprisoned by shame, in the selfishness and grayness of the lower octave and are pushed further into a higher probability of death and suicide.

Against others:

In practice and film: The acts of harm committed against vulnerable people in the practice of it and the film of it are wrong because they are of pain and shame desire which is the hatred of innocence which is wrong and caused by interdimensional entities of hatred possessing people in their sexual organs, and the lasting and crippling harm it has on them mentally, physically, and most of all, spiritually, is a horrifying abomination that if fully known by the parent of that child would cause them to become hysterical and be crushed beyond what is comprehensible to the selfish.

Against one's spouse and children: The acts of self harm that are instructed and encouraged go into the realm of engaging with hatred against one's spouse and children, spiritually and physically - It is mainstream and plentiful on the major pornographic websites and social media applications. This causes

1 Shame and then selfishness against one's spouse and children leading to the destruction of the family. 2 The discovery of the engagement with the hatred against one's spouse and children, spiritually and physically, that will cause the destruction of the family, ultimately harming, oppressing, and endangering the vulnerable children beyond what is conceivable to the selfish.

2 Hateful spiritually:

Indirectly selfish and direct: The Perception and Fixation on the selfishness and hatred of the sadistic pornographers and the Remindment and Amplification of the selfish abuse and hateful abuse one has endured in their personal lives from the sadistic pornography causes great shame which causes great selfishness and then imprisons vulnerable people into the lower octave and the gray where they are in misery and constant chronic pain (this weakness empowers addiction to itself because selfishness comes from the shame of weakness) only to be led into a higher probability of death and the eventual ending of their lives; disadvantaging children in need just as the darkness had desired all along.

Sadistic sexuality and Sadistic pornography basically entail being instructed and encouraged to eat your literal excrement and be called a "worthless piece of shit" by the biggest mainstream sadistic pornographers who are several clicks away on adult websites that queer professionals are encouraging underage children to watch, and who are promoted all over the application Snapchat for ages 13 plus.

It is the year 2026. The darkness decided that exactly around the year 2000 they would bring forth sexual sadism and sadistic pornography, they would bring forth sadism against children, and that they would make the human beings in positions of authority in our world believe that there is nothing wrong with it and that this would be done against the children without the parents knowing at all. In 2000, the internet came into existence. In 2010, the queer collective began gaining domination and hiding sadism within itself and its materials. In 2020, sadism and its victimization of children was flourishing.

By 2030, it is my intuition that the darkness desires to bring forth things that can only be described as insanity - But that will not go to plan. Rather, by 2030 the people of Service will have already unleashed a global war on sadism, and this will make a massive impact to protect the wellbeing of children, vulnerable people, and their families.

Sadism is taught and encouraged to children under the age of 18 by professional educators and professional health clinicians globally - I specifically have evidence of it in Canada. These professional health clinicians will teach underage children everything about sadism in person and also online, and then encourage them to view the online sadistic pornography even so the law states anyone under 18 is forbidden to, the professional health clinicians will directly instruct the child: "Watching porn is normal. Many different ages watch porn. The law usually comes into effect when an adult has shown porn to a child and that they are rarely used to penalize minors. It is completely a personal decision. Porn can expand our horizons and therefore enrich our current or future sexual experiences. There are many ways to have sex. Sadism is called kink. It means it is less common but it is not abnormal - Normal is arbitrary; a personal bias." They are telling the underage children that they will not get in trouble, that there is nothing wrong with it and that it will enrich them.

These professional health clinicians will primarily encourage the underage children to follow a link to a website called "Scarleteen." Two sisters from Chicago named Heather Corinna and Saffron Corinna author most of all the content on the site. Heather Corinna personally authored an article on the site where she used an account, perhaps fictionally written by her for the sake of her article, where 15 year old children are interested in sadism, and then she details everything she can about it, to encourage her underage audience of children into sadism.

She details slavery, torture, punishment, humiliation, BDSM, master and slave, enjoying giving physical and emotional pain, enjoying and desiring the pain, flogging, nipple clamps, arousal from limb amputation, the fetishizing of a baby bottle, and says fetishes are rooted in childhood. Heather Corinna attended a podcast interview from Northwestern University in Chicago called "EDIT Community Spotlight" where she revealed that in 1997 she was actually working with little children as an educator at a Montessori establishment during the day and that she would then produce pornography at night. Then, as we know, she would go on to create educational material for underage children that instructs and encourages them into sadism and particularly speaks positively about fetishizing a baby bottle - And by the year 2020 the queer collective and its educator and health clinician professionals would use her, her material on her website, and her books as the primary standard for spreading sadism into underage children.

On the podcast, Heather Corinna details her profession as "adolescent sexuality that moves back towards childhood," stating, "You were probably masturbating when you were very little and you don't remember when you stopped," because you were "traumatized" when somebody told you it was "nasty or dirty." It is clear that Heather Corinna and the queer collective are at a current state where they are encouraging "very little" children to be sexual - and it is my prediction of logic that from this spirit the queer collective will attempt to make pornography and sadistic pornography accessible to “very little” children in the future. The webpage I am speaking about has seemingly since been removed, but I however still have screen captures and this content and worse is available in most of her published books that are available in school libraries for underage youth. By 2015, the popular app Snapchat that is rated for ages 13 plus began producing, in secret, and curating sadistic content and sadistic educational content for their explore/discover page. By 2020, educators and sadistic pornographers themselves had begun spreading details of and encouragement into sadism certainly for underage children on the primary global video sharing website Youtube and most of all the content is not age restricted whatsoever.

Earlier in my life, I loved a woman that I believed loved me. I love everyone, and it doesn't mean I want to take from them like sexual desire does, it means I want to give to them as the Spirit of Service does. I know everyone primarily as a being of Service and giving and also as a human. I loved this woman unconditionally as a being of Service and as a human and I also believed she was one of the most special people I had ever met; primarily because after looking at me, she wrote a poem for me about how wise and innocent my spirit appeared to her, forgiving me so graciously for spilling a drink on her food, understanding and praising my writing more than anyone ever has and giving me a big hug when I gave her a present.

The darkness soon targeted her and deeply ashamed her. I believe something bad happened in her relationship with her partner at the time. She ended up turning on me completely, hating me so terribly, as if I was a sexually selfish and sexually abusive person who she knew nothing about and did not care for at all. She called me bad names and hated me because she said I did not love her because I did not know her; as if I didn't love and serve her unconditionally because I know she is a being of Service and a human being, but rather as if I was a terrible pervert who only saw her for her body.

At the time, I could not come to understand the exact sexual nature in which she projected that I hated her and therefore I could not overcome the shame she inflicted on me by hating me. As I was imprisoned by confusion and intimidation into shame, I was made to feel that my desire to love, give to, and serve others was wrong and terrible. The darkness, by warping her precious mind into hating me like I was sexually selfish when I truly did desire to serve her unconditionally and truly did see her for how special and beautiful her Spirit of Service was, and also warping my mind to not understand the insane confusion between the two forces of the Spirit of Service and the sexual entity that took place to engineer the hatred and division in our relationship, I was in fact attacked directly toward my heart; The darkness directly attacked my heart. Few and as good as dead are the people who are attacked directly in their hearts.

The shame caused me to become selfish. In the selfishness of the shame I began to feel as though I only existed in a world of gray. When I would think of her and how she hated me, it was like a metaphysical force that weighed fifty pounds would crush my chest; I had trouble breathing. The confusion of why she would hate me gave me headaches so often. When no one else could see me I would cry until I would heave; regularly. At one point, after suffering so intensely for an hour when I was alone, I truly went into the greatest depth of shame possible. I began to feel like everything and everyone in the world was against me and my love, that I deserved no joy, and that there would never be an escape from it; in the depth of my soul and all over my body, it felt like I was set alight on a spiritual fire that was the most wrong and horrifying thing ever conceivable and I began to jump and dance in fear. Suddenly I remembered that there were people who loved me and who believed I loved them, and with a sensation of coming to my senses I returned to normal. However, the suffering continued on and off for around three years, up unto today, Christmas Day, that I have written this - I promise the Light that with my new understanding of how the sexual entity and its abuse is responsible for me being hated and that I did not deserve to be hated, and that my Service to others is true, makes me truly strong, and that the Children of the world receive my love and unconditionally love me in return, as I have come to so deeply know recently; I will not allow myself to suffer that shame, selfishness, or grayness ever again, and that I will never surrender my fight against the sexual entity and its abuse against human beings. I completely forgive the woman who hated me because it is clear that her mind was warped by sexual abuse and its entities of darkness and that is not her fault. I believe that she will come to love me unconditionally and see my spirit for how special she once saw it. She is me.

There was a point in my life where I felt ultimately humiliated.

As I was deeply suffering from sexually abusive, sexually selfish, and sexually jealous hatred from other people where I would work, struggle to function throughout the day and hurt myself, all I could see was men who had girlfriends and wives and children who loved them more than anything, some of them being selfish and ungrateful for them, and it absolutely humiliated me to think that instead of ever having a first date, a first kiss, or any kind of love from women at all, all I had instead was women hating me; women hatefully attacking me, women being selfish against me after I would serve them so much, women hating me like I was a terrible pervert who made me feel like I was not allowed to "love" them or anyone, and that I should live in shame and the gray, that I should suffer and end my life. Where is my love? Where is my joy? Where is the little boy I once was? Where is God? Where is the Light? Where is the output?

I believe now that our pain, our pain deep inside us, is the only God we have left in this world, and that by directly telling us that something is wrong, and how deeply wrong it is, that God is very real and is still with us in this world and in this age. Pain is an inspiration.

There was a little girl who was one of my best friends when I was a little boy, and I will never forget that it was the best day ever when she wanted to kiss me. Although I was too nervous, this little girl is forever in my mind because of how she demonstrated the act of a Spirit of Service towards me when I was ashamed about something. At the time I am writing this now, there is only one woman who has ever kissed me on a date, in fact it was the only romantic date I had ever been on, and she did so twice on my cheek. I shared the Spirit of Service with this young woman, and her high spirit has brought me feelings of great joy and loving security. She told me over the phone that she had a dream about me, where the black dog she had as a child growing up was sitting on my lap. She has been through terrible abuse, she tells me - I believe that the Light will deliver her into the healthiest and most joyful version of herself that she can be.

The Truth is clear. When you hurt yourself, you hurt children.
When you are ashamed, you make children ashamed.
If you are to save yourself and save children, you must never hurt yourself again and never be ashamed again.
Service is Strength.

The readers of this handbook will benefit from learning more about me.

I was born around the year 2000 with a sibling who would be the light of my life during the darkness. The service in my spirit was most high and I basked in the joy of the higher octave that was the ones I loved.

At around age 5 or 6, I was given a nightmare that was of and perhaps directly from the "black dog." Individuals who exist in the other dimensions can give people in the sexual dimension experiences they know as dreams while they are asleep. In the nightmare, I walked into one of the bathrooms in my house and suddenly there was the little black dog that had belonged to one of my grandparents. It was nothing like the little black dog I loved in the sexual dimension, or real world, but rather it was an individual of the most extreme darkness taking the form of the little black dog I was familiar with so as to confuse and pervert innocence as the hatred of the darkness loves to do.

The energy of the black dog was as if the maximum frequencies of confusion, sadness, and intimidation all mixed together. The way the black dog was side eyeing me made me nauseous and made my skin crawl. Then the black dog began to speak to me, and he did so in the deepest, loudest, and most terrifying voice imaginable. It's as if his vocal chords were made of a V8 engine and the grittiest sandpaper imaginable.

Today, I cannot consciously recall a single word he said to me, but there were in fact a lot of words. The octave energy of the nightmare must have been the lowest frequency possible, because the entire world in the nightmare felt like suffocating nausea, where the only light was a single pinhole. So believe me, when I woke up, only 6 years old, the whiplash and sensation of relief upon returning all the way up into my higher octave was the greatest thing ever. I would only deeply recall having this nightmare around the age of 22 - I suppressed it.

During my puberty my octave began to lower, I began to experience extremely strange habits, feelings, and senses that would have to do with sexual energy and sexually abusive energies in other people, and it seemed like every second person in my life was turning on me and had become sexually jealous of me and would try to weaken and intimidate me.

Once I reached high school, I began to experience dreams all throughout the night, every single night, from all sorts of interdimensional individuals. Some of the dreams contained the higher octave sense I was missing since my childhood, and this set me on my quest to discover all of the most incredible secrets of the universe - I began experimenting with music. Near the end of high school I survived a suicide attempt and experienced a love that truly expanded the universe from my sibling. Then I was hatefully attacked by a woman and I instantly forgave her.

Then I survived being hit by a car on a crosswalk. Then I met the woman that hated me like I was a terrible pervert and I was sent into darkness.

Once I reached another year at university, my quest for secrets led me to experiment with frequencies unlike ever before. First, I had to realize the imagination is not something that is fake but rather an energetic and light dimension sandbox. I would listen to a song in C major so I would know what key I was in, then I would look at a color, then I would sense its feeling and the weight of that feeling, then I would hum the weight and find its exact key on the piano. Then I would mix and match these results with the emotional states of people as I came to suspect and imagine them. The energies and results were concrete just as the dimension of light is.

Once I knew exactly what the different energies, or emotions, or in fact ways of love and service each music note and color truly was, I realized the progression of music notes did not match the natural color progression, and I soon, after thinking about these things for more than four hours a day, every single day for several months, simply had the intuition to piece together the symbol while I was in fact sitting on the toilet. My intuition told me to add and subtract the numbers in linear fashion and to my ironic lack of surprise they equalled zero in both directions, and then I discovered the other two sets of parallel calculations and continue to this day to more deeply understand the simple and poetic brilliance of the symbol being based on 3 and 4, or rather woman and man, and added together they equal the 7 notes of the scale and multiplied together they equal the 12 notes of the octave.

2 years later I had left university and began working full time again. This time around my childhood armour of self worth and strength was stolen from me and I began to deeply suffer from the sexually abusive projections of the people I would come into contact with. Sexually abusive people on social media caused me to have discomfort and terrible anxiety when my penis would rub against my pants and dwell in the lower octave. This led me to truly be transformed and endowed with the mastery of my internal life force, or Spirit of Service, to assert my strength and worth in every moment, which would enable me to function again and be able to fight against the negative projections of sexually overridden individuals.

I also had the absolute honor and privilege of interacting with children and babies, and they make me so excited for the future. To summarize, the young children and babies of 2026 have the greatest Spirits of Service imaginable, they unconditionally love (not to be confused with the selfish desire to take as the sexual entity does, don't you dare test me) and give to everyone, some of them are so ecstatically playful and creative it's supernatural, and some of them, especially the babies, are in fact in possession of spiritual abilities and spiritual sensitivity - That may not leave them as they age.

It is this incredible love of the incredible love of children that began to fuel and lead me deeper into what I feel is my mission to help abolish sexual sadism and sadistic pornography globally, along with a newfound sense of strength and empowerment from the New Testament of Jesus Christ that I had been missing, from my lack of personal reading, earlier in my life. As I began to amass understanding of and virtue against the principles of sadism with the same spirit that led me to gain knowledge on spiritual matters of light, I began to make new enemies; certainly not as bad as the black dog yet but absolutely perhaps working for him.

I was given a nightmare from what I believe is an individual of hatred, particularly of overseeing the operations of sadistic sexuality and its pornography, from the other dimension. In the nightmare I was looking at a boy looking into a bathroom mirror appearing happy and then slowly transforming over time into looking ashamed and distressed with his hair becoming unkempt - It began to look like me - and then as I woke up and writhed, the force of the other dimension still had affect on me and I could hear in my left ear a robotic sounding woman's voice very frighteningly, strangely, and quickly speak about 30 seconds of speech to me, but I however could only understand and remember about 5 seconds of it, in which she said something close to, "We will get you addicted to every single kind there is except child."

After all of my research, the hidden clues I have found, and my intuition, I believe that one day in the future alien beings will descend upon the Earth and pose as highly intelligent, highly loving, and highly evolved beings, only to bring about a sexual revolution that will become sadistic and bring about violence and war. I believe that the fiction surrounding the authority of these alien beings who will genuinely somehow appear on Earth has already been written over the past 100 years through different human beings who claim to be led by these alien beings psychically and interdimensionally. They say the origin of darkness is a diseased meteor and or a rogue artificial intelligence, and not the sexual entity as it truly is because they want to bring about a sexual revolution to hurt children because they, the so called, “Atlantean Aliens,” are covertly the people of darkness, hatred and the black dog. They say to keep an “open mind” about the “reptilians” and that “new earth” will be “kinky,” in the same breath that they say Jesus Christ is an agent of darkness himself. Before that, Elijah from the book of Malachai will come.

In the end, there is only Light. In the end, there is no darkness.
 In the end, everything will be known. The knowing of everything in the end is the Culmination.
 In the Culmination, shame and selfishness will not exist. There will only be euphoria forever.
 You will see how everything has connected to everything else when you thought that it did not,
 you will see how meaningful everything was when it all felt meaningless, you will see the power of all things that were thought of as weak, you will see how deeply beautiful the people others thought were ugly truly are, you will see how deeply you changed the lives you touched when you thought you didn’t at all,
 and everyone you love the most will be with you again and will never leave you.
 You will drink the sweetest and most refreshing water and it will never stop flowing.
 The spirits of playfulness will intoxicate you without end.
 You will grow into the most vast and alive forest and will cover the world with your love.
 You will finally have the most perfect peace and everlasting joy.
 You will be loved and your love will be loved. 34.

We are the people of Service.
 We Serve because it is who we are and we are Strong because we Serve.
 We will not fear Serving and we will not fear being Strong.
 We will strive to Serve greater and greater and we will resist the hatred of the sexual entity with every thought we think and action that we make.
 We will bring about a vastness of beauty, joy and love into the world through our Service to others, our education of the Light and our works of art.
 We will save our souls from resting in darkness and we will save as many others as we can.
 Not a day will pass that we will not say Service is Strength.
 Not a day will pass that we will hate the innocence that is within all people.
 Not a day will pass that we will be ashamed. Not a day will pass that we will be alone.
 We will become the heroes of eternity.
 Look closely, the Light shines forever!

Things are not always what they seem. There is a power deepest within you, one the whole world has forgotten; that will save you. The question is, for the joy that you have forgotten, how far will you go? And if you don’t mind me asking, how do you like me now? Their fear is our joy!
